AT POLK'S THEATER.

Alias Jimmy Valentine.

The new season of the Polk Players is now a week old and the public has had an opportunity to form their own opinion regarding the scenic and management's plans for the coming season. There are necessarily many drawbacks and disappointments in getting everything ready for the audience necessary to prepare an organization for an opening, and naturally the point aimed for has not yet been reached, but the opening production furnishes an illustration of what can be expected when everything is perfected.

For the second week, beginning Monday night, the stock company will present what the management confidently expects will be one of the most pleasing and satisfying stock productions yet made in this city. The play selected to elicit the good opinion of the people already have of the company is Alias Jimmy Valentine, one of the very best attractions within the reach of a stock company at the present time. It is one of the latest successes that has not yet been released in many parts of the country. It is still on tour in the largest cities, playing at the highest prices, so that local people are getting an attraction at from 10 to 50 cents that at the same time paying a much higher scale of prices.

Alias Jimmy Valentine is by Paul Armstrong and was suggested by H. H. Armstrong, the late O.
H. H. Armstrong. It is a detective play of the most up-to-date kind and presents a picture of a reformed thief that is not only clever and original but also humorous as well. Mr. Armstrong will play the title role, a part in which he has already made a pronounced hit. It is said to be one of his best characterizations. Miss Pincus will have the leading feminine role, with Miss Locke and Miss Emma Hayner in the other female characters. Miss Flora Dorset will make her initial appearance with the company as a boy. The balance of the company will be the same as in the opening hit.

Little Ellen Grenier, a Norwich girl, will have an important role in the play, and at rehearsals has shown promise of making one of the hits of the show.
Matinees will be given on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at which time the entire lower floor is reserved, and tickets may be secured for any seat one week in advance.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

An especially interesting and historically instructive musical play has been secured for the children to see today, entitled The Last of the Mo-hicans, and the picture is acted by a very capable stock company, following closely the story of the story of the same name. The original Uncas, of whom so much is known in this particular locality, is portrayed in a most fascinating manner by Edwin Powell, the leading man of the Powers company. This picture should be especially interesting to the people of the city of Norwich.

Mark & Worth, presenting The Scotchman and the Yankee Girl, an act which always entertains well on Monday's bill with Fritz Leighton, comedian, and Kelo & Leighton, acrobatic dancers. Wednesday of next week the second of the Mutt and Jeff talking photo-farce pictures will be shown.

LYCEUM THEATER.

Pulpit, press and public have united in singing the praises of The Fortune Hunter, which will be presented at the Lyceum theater, New London, next Monday night.
This work of praise only simple-ments that marked by every man, woman and child who has witnessed Winchell Smith's delightful comedy of money hunting. The first minister enrolled in the army of patron boosters for this wholesome play was the Rev.
Percival Howson Barker, pastor of the First Congregational church in Bay-wood, one of Chicago's leading ministers. Dr. Barker, after seeing a performance of The Fortune Hunter, in his sermon said:

"This clever comedy is a great interpreter of the heart and conveys much to the enjoyment and worth of life." Parker H. Sereboom in a lecture delivered at Kimball hall, in Chicago, to a select audience, declared that the gospel of work taught in The Fortune Hunter, if followed by our wealthy young men, would prove a boon to the nation. With all the good sense and sound logic, the play is full of humor and is dotted almost continuously by outbursts of laughter and when the curtain falls everyone regrets that the time of the play cannot be prolonged.

BREED THEATER.

The brilliant story of The Colonel's Son, now the feature picture at the Breed, is interesting and d-lightening large audiences that are witnessing it, and because of the strongly human plot, appeals to all. The great scene where the colonel discovers the spy is his son and is already sentenced to be shot is made more dramatic by the father refusing to interfere. He is anxious, however, to have his son prove himself a man at the last, so secretly tells him that the bullets from the executing guns have been withdrawn. The young fellow, believing this, walks to his death in a brave manner and impresses all with the fact that he is a brave soldier, in spite of his conviction.

Another beautiful story of the war is entitled The Tale of a Soldier's Ring and has some unusually strong dramatic scenes and is embellished with some exquisitely beautiful scenery backgrounds.

Miss Laws wins much applause with the stirring topical song We All Fought and also with the pretty song of childhood entitled Child Love.

Once in Fifteen Years.
Thirty-five years—think of it, thirty-five years ago when L. & M. Paint was first made known.

It then needed time to prove its durable quality.
It has done it now, and its large use is the proof.
Costs about $1.50 per gallon, because you make nearly one-half more, by adding a gal. of a gallon of Linseed Oil to each gallon of paint, and you won't need to repaint for about 15 years.

ley, Plainfield, agents. Write postal for

Not A Word Of Scandal married the call of a neighbor on Mrs.
W. P. Spangh, of Manville, Wyo., who said: "She told me Dr. King's New Life Pills had cured her of obstinate headache made her feel like a new woman." Easy, but sure remedy for stomach, liver and kidney troubles.
Only 25c at Lee & Osgood Co.

ANSWERS THE CALL

Norwich People Have Found That This is True.

A cold, a strain, a sudden wrench.
A little cause may hurt the kidneys.
Spells of backache often follow.
Or some irregularity of the urine.
A splendid remedy for such attacks.
A medicine that has cured thousands.
Is Doan's Kidney Pills, a true kidney remedy.

Many Norwich people rely on it.

Here is Norwich proof.

Mrs. E. Sheppard, 46 Palmer St., Norwich, Conn., says: "I willingly confirm the public statement I gave in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills in August, 1908. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at N. D. Sevin & Son's Drug Store, several years ago when suffering from backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble and they gave me entire relief. I consider this remedy to be an excellent one."
